

Join us for a film screening and discussion with the directors of "Barry Farm: Community, Land and Justice in Washington, DC".

Learn how to provide more love and light in the community around us, the importance of our work with WIN, connecting the arts to social change, and the value of this history as we fight for affordable housing, and improved public housing in DC.

In-person and virtual event
February 1st, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Location:

St. Mark's Capitol Hill
301 A Street SE
Washington, DC 20003
